Health and Vitality

reevive your life is the naturally healthy beverage idea for all of life's situations. Whether in the morning, afternoon or evening, whether at work, or after engaging in sports or simply relaxing in your free time - reevive your life harmonises body and spirit at any time and in every situation.

The right beverage for every occasion

With its four product lines - reefresh, reecover, reelax and reemind - reevive your life gives your body just what it needs. A gentle pick-me-up in the morning, highly effective stress protection at work or while engaging in sporting activities, recuperative relaxation for the rest phases, as well as improved intermittent ability to concentrate. reevive your life continually regenerates and protects the human organism - all day long.

Purely natural

This innovative concept works naturally: All products are based on pure plant extracts which, in their various combinations, have a relaxing, revitalising, regenerative or stimulating effect. The four product lines are thus ideally suited as a basis for a multitude of beverages and food items. A broad range of great-tasting flavours assures an interesting variety.

Proven effectiveness

Scientific tests have proven the effectiveness of reevive your life. All recipes are formulated exclusively with known and well-documented raw materials. For some of our plant extract mixtures we have made our own clinical studies. The extensive know-how of Plantextrakt results in the continuous, successful development of new, innovative recipes. The "Proven Functionality by Plantextrakt" seal confirms the product's effectiveness in achieving the documented well-being. The result: trustworthy product ideas which enjoy a high level of acceptance by consumers. Thus, reevive your life becomes a guarantee of success for a new generation of functional nutritional products.

Naturally "in" reevive your life is a concept perfectly in line with the trend towards wellness and convenience. With this concept, Plantextrakt supports you in the development of innovative products which combine enjoyable nutrition with practical functionality. Apart from the functional plant extract components, our preparations contain ingredients such as minerals, vitamins or fast resorbing sugars - depending on the concept idea. These naturally healthy recipes provide the consumer with optimal, overall care. You can also rely on us: We accompany you through the market launch of your new products using reevive your life. Your twofold advantage: reevive your life offers physical well-being for your customers and a well-rounded, carefully developed product concept for your marketing success.

The new seal signifies product effectiveness based on own clinical studies.
